Transmittal Letter

Honorable Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

Applicant hereby submits the following:

- 1) In response to notice to file missing parts mailed 7/30/2001, an inventor's declaration is supplied. Applicant's agent took the liberty of adding the application number and filing date, as well as the group art unit, to the declaration, in order to properly aid in identifying this document to the file.
- 2) Three sheets of drawings, depicting figures 5a, 5b, 6, 7, 7b, and 8. Due to technical difficulties, the original application was submitted with informal drawings of low quality. Applicant respectfully requests that the original drawings filed with the application be substituted with the enclosed drawings. As the enclosed drawings are merely better reproductions of the old, applicant submits that no new matter has been introduced.
- 3) Assignment documents and forms.
- 4) An IDS with copies of all cited documents.

- 5) Credit Card Charge Authorization for $105.00 (PTO/2038), and fee transmittal sheet PTO/SB/17, to cover surcharge for late filing of the declaration, and assignment recordation.

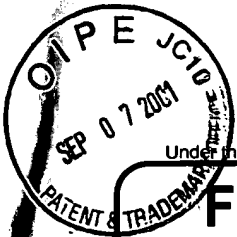

Applicant believes that the above submission is fully in order and places the application in conformance with notice to file missing parts, and with any and all other requirements for successful examination. If however the office believes that there are any shortcomings, or if a telephone interview may further the prosecution of this application in any manner, the relevant office personnel is kindly requested to contact applicants' agent Shalom Wertsberger at telephone (207) 799-9733.

Respectfully Submitted

Shalom Wertsberger, Agent for Applicant.
